Council to Take Action Soon, Belief

Under the full-time mayor plan, the majority office salary can be fixed at any sum not less than $5,000 nor more than $7,000, while the salaries of the commissioners cannot be fixed at more than $2,400.

The commission has already fixed the salaries of permanent officers on a basis of the incoming city fiscal period. However, no steps to fix the salaries of the incoming elected officers have been taken.

Mills said he would give all the information he has about the class rush to the proper authorities.

"I was in the thick of the fight," Mills said, "and I ought to know all about it."

"I organized a searching party upon advice of Walter Hill Scott, Northwestern president, and led the hunt for a week."

Mills said he was not personally acquainted with Mount, but that he "must have seen him on the campus."

NEGRESS BURNS RIVAL TO DEATH

Pours Gasoline on Her and Ignites It

JASPER, Texas, May 7.—A negro woman was held in jail here today, pending action of a grand jury, following the burning to death of Miss Donigan, another negress.

During church services the first woman, the wife of one of the deacons, became angry at the Donigan woman, and later meeting her, emptied a pail of gasoline over her and lighted a match at her head, causing horrible burns and death soon afterwards, authorities claim.

The accused woman is said to have become angry when she saw her husband, the deacon, give the Donigan woman some money during church services. The deacon had previously taken up a collection and was only making change for a bill the slain woman had given him.

PLAZA TO PAVE WACO, AUSTIN

Nat on Fourth Street Also To Get Attention

Adjustment of the payment of paving costs around the Plaza hotel property on Waco and Austin avenues between Fourth street and Waco avenue, and on Fourth street alongside the Plaza hotel, has been reached between city officials and receivers in charge of the Plaza property, it became known today.

Excavations were started today on the strip of Fourth street left out when concrete was poured in the block between Beaumont and Waco avenues, pending the settlement of questions of the receivers of the Plaza property paying the prorata paving assessment.

A. P. Rollins, consulting engineer, in charge of the paving work, said the receivers of the Plaza property also have agreed to pay for their portion of the paving on Austin and Waco avenues between Fourth street and Lake Shore drive.

The Plaza hotel company owns a frontage on Fourth street between Waco and Austin avenues, but in the original paving plans this block was not included for paving, Rollins said. If enough funds remain after the original paving program is completed, however, this block may be paved, the engineer said.

A place for the musicals has not been selected, Silber said, but it will probably be given in either the Franklin school auditorium or the First school church. ### KKK HERE DENIES ELECTION TICKET

Declares Reports in County Seat Paper Incorrect

CALLS IT 'HOAX'

Says Hands Off Attitude Maintained

Denouncing statements relative to the recent election that appeared "in the Sunday morning issue of the Beaumont Enterprise and in the issue today of the Enterprise from the Port Arthur correspondent" as false, and asserting that the Port Arthur Knights of the Ku Klux Klan did not endorse any candidate or body of candidates for public office, a statement written on Ku Klux Klan stationery and bearing the seal of "Dick Dowling Klan No. 25" brands the Beaumont newspaper's articles as "a hoax already completely exposed to rebound against its authors."

"Incorrect," Says Letter

The statement from "Dick Dowling Klan" declares that "there was no 'Klan ticket,'" and that the story in the Enterprise concerning the election was incorrect.

"There was no such thing in this campaign as a 'Klan ticket,'" the statement sets out.

The statement, addressed to The News and bearing the Klan seal, follows:

Editor Port Arthur News,

Dear Sir:—In the Sunday morning issue of the Beaumont Enterprise, and again in the issue today of the Enterprise, statements from the Port Arthur correspondent reporting the results of the Port Arthur election Saturday are to the effect that the Klan in this city put out a "ticket." The language in the Sunday Enterprise is as follows:

"The final count in the city primary election completed at 10 o'clock tonight, shows that the Klan ticket won in each of the races."

This is incorrect insofar as the "Klan ticket" is concerned. There was no such thing in the campaign as a "Klan ticket," and it is the hope that you will aid us in correcting this erroneous statement that we offer the following explanation:

So far as the officials and members of this organization are aware, the BERLIN, May 7.—German today took heart from dispatches indicating Great Britain is sending a supplementary reparations note and refused to accept as final the Franco-Belgian rejection of her latest proposals.

Hopes of finding a middle ground for discussion of reparations were expressed by officials here.

The Cuno government probably will withhold reply to the note of France and Belgium, received here Sunday, until one from Great Britain arrives when there will be opportunity to compare the attitude of the various allies and profit by what is expected to be the greater leniency of the British reply.

Cuno is to address the Reichstag Friday. Although his downfall has been predicted, officials supporting him insist a basis of negotiations leading to settlement of the reparations tangle may be found shortly.

SCOUT HEAD ISSUES LETTER

Says Troop Chiefs and Boys Innocent

CRITICISES CIRCULAR

Declares 'No Excuse for Publishing Names'

Deplored the publicity given the boys appearing as Scouts, who distributed political circulars Friday night, holding that "officers or others responsible for detaining these boys overstepped their authority," and that the bulletin implicating both the Boy Scouts and Knights of Columbus organizations was unwarranted.

Fred P. Dodge, president of the Port Arthur Boy Scouts council, today issued a written report of his investigation of the "disturbance" Friday night.

Dodge's Statement

The statement issued by Dodge is as follows:

"Upon investigation of disturbance Friday night account of distribution of campaign literature, which involved our Boy Scout Organization, I expressly deplore publicity given the boys appearing as Scouts and feel that there was no excuse and no reason for their detention or for the publishing of their names in a bulletin, which was distributed later."

Boys, Leaders Innocent

"These boys and their leaders were entirely innocent of any wrong doing, as they are frequently called upon to distribute circulars, etc., the nature of which they are not familiar with. "It is my judgment that citizens should be more careful in future in calling upon boys to distribute literature of any sort the nature of which or statements made therein can in any way be questioned. I feel further that officers or others responsible for detaining these boys overstepped their authority, as they should not have been involved in a political controversy."

Order Not Involved

"Neither the Knights of Columbus nor the Scout organizations are permitted by their charters to participate in political activities and so far as I can find neither organization as such were involved, so that the bulletin implicating both organizations was unwarranted."

2 U. S. CITIZENS, 1 ENGLISHMAN ARE SHOT DOWN

International Action May Be Taken to Force Chinese Government to Capture Renegades Fled to Hills.

PEKIN, May 7.—(9 p. m. Pekin time)—America and Great Britain tonight intervened in behalf of the American and British citizens kidnapped by the Chinese bandits Sunday.

The British and American legations served notice on the government in the form of a demand that China must obtain release of the captives and explain the situation, which is considered grave.

The government admits that it is seriously embarrassed in its efforts to round up the outlaws as the bandits, following tactics they have pursued in the past, may massacre their captives if they are not pressed by the troops.

PEKIN, May 7.—Two Americans and one Englishman are reported to have been shot when government troops attacked the bandits holding more than a score of foreigners as hostages, after their sensational train wrecking and kidnapping exploit of Sunday.

This latest report from the scene of one of the most daring pieces of outlawry in the history of China, was received by the American consul from a foreign missionary near the bandit camp.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

The Tinker Man lifted the lid off the big box. "Sh!" said the Tinker Man softly. "What is it?" whispered Nancy and Nick tiptoeing up as quietly as two little mice and as curious as two little squirrels.

The Tinker Man lifted the lid off a big box that had just come to Bing-Bang Land, then clapped it right on again. But not before the Twins had time to see rows and rows of brand-new tin soldiers with helmets on their heads and rifles in their hands. "I don't want them to hear," whispered the Tinker Man. "I don't want these new soldiers to know that there is a war going on here, for they would jump right out of the box and go to help their comrades."

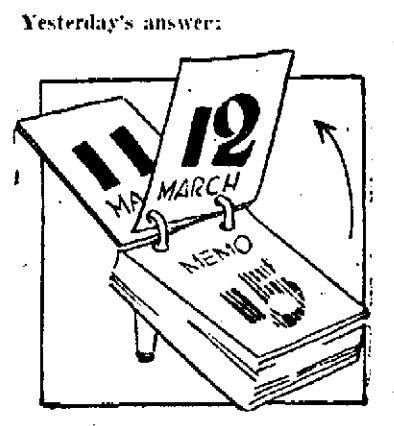

"Why don't you let them go?" asked Nick. "If one side wins then the war will be over." "Oh, but don't you know that all the toy soldiers in Bing-Bang Land are for Christmas presents? A nice lot there will be if they keep on shooting each other's arms and legs off. No, sir! I'll just lay this box away carefully and not let these soldiers out at all. Then I'll have at least a few new ones for Santa that don't need patching."

Just then the radio on the table went bug—bug—brr—brrr! Nick put the thingamajig over his ears to get the message. "It's general Hobbledeboy talking," he said. "He wants to know if his other tin soldiers have come yet. He says he wrote to the Toy Maker that his army was too small and to send him new men at once."

"All right! All right!" sighed the Tinker Man. "I suppose these are the ones. Tell him I'll march them over right away." "I can't help it! I'll all the little boys get crippled tin soldiers for Christmas this year. If Johnny Jones gets a soldier with an eye out and Sammy Smith gets one with his arms

DELAY WORK ON ROADS

Car Shortage Also to Blame, Says Engineer Love

Rains have seriously interfered with road building in Jefferson county during the past month, according to A. C. Love, engineer in charge of the special work. Shortage of cars to deliver material has also been a contributor to this condition.

The inability of the contractor to obtain sand used in mixing concrete, together with the rains, has resulted in work being completely suspended on the sixteenth street road in Port Arthur for the present.

While the rains have interfered seriously with new work, the county roads are in better shape than was expected and motorists can use any of the hard surfaced roads. The road to Orange is still closed. It will be necessary to build new approaches before the ferry can be used.

The Spindletop road, which is a part of the West Port Arthur road, has been completed and is now one of the best pieces of highway in the county. Bridges and culverts have been completed on the Port Arthur-Nederland road and work will be pushed on this stretch as fast as possible, Love said. High tides have delayed the construction of about a mile of the road between Port Arthur and Sabine. However, the road is open. Good progress is being made on the beach road.

KKK HERE DENIES ELECTION TICKET

only attempt to put before the voters a set of names purporting to be men endorsed by the Klan was that made late Friday night preceding the election when circulars were distributed throughout the city reading as follows:

"If you are a K. K. K., or in sympathy with the principles we stand for, then vote for any of these men and the Klan is in Port Arthur."

Then followed a list of candidates, none of whom, either collectively or individually, was endorsed by the Klan. Nor were any candidates in the city election endorsed by the Klan. In fact, Dick Dowling Klan, No. 25, Realm of Texas, has strictly maintained an attitude of "hands off" throughout the city elections in Port Arthur, and we are authorized to state that in the run-off elections, the same attitude shall be taken by the Klan.

This circular circulated Friday night was promptly traced to sources admittedly antagonistic to the Klan and the responsibility for its distribution was fixed by affidavits upon a politically disreputable gentleman who had, during the campaign, acted as manager for a ticket which had been offered frankly as an anti-Klan ticket. In addition to the testimony already offered as to its source, affidavits of Dick Dowling Klan, hereby denounce it as an unauthorized and wholly false statement with the promulgation of which the Klan has nothing whatever to do.

In view of the record, every detail of which was well known to the Port Arthur correspondent of the Beaumont Enterprise, we naturally read with considerable surprise the misleading statement contained in his dispatches Sunday morning, as quoted in this communication. We regret that a creditable newspaper has been made the instrument of an obvious attempt to give further publicity to a most completely exposed and to rebound against its authors to the extent that hundreds of good citizens of the city, regardless of their fraternal or religious affiliations, rebelled against this attempt to promote the spirit of intolerance for political purposes, and relied to the support of the men it was thus sought to discredit in the eyes of citizens not members of, or even friendly to the Klan.

BANDITS HOLD U. S. CITIZENS

Their pajamas were forced to walk from the trail wreckage across ground littered with broken glass.

They were robbed of everything of value even the eyeglasses of several.

Surrounded by brigands and amid scenes of wild confusion, to the music of wild yells of the bandits and the frightened cries of women and children, the prisoners were hustled away.

Their captors forced them to march briskly over the rough country toward the hill fastness where they planned to hold them.

Miss Aldrich Released

The refugees believe that the captives were forced to march in the midst of the bandits for many hours through a desolate and forbidding country far from roads and habitations.

Chinese railway officials have received a report that Miss Aldrich, sister-in-law of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and Miss MacFadyen have been released. Miss MacFadyen was reported to be ill and suffering from exposure. These women are at Linglong, which the consuls from Tien Tsin, Shanghai and Nanking are speeding with physicians.

Scraps, whose home is in Cincinnati, Ohio, left the United States in February with Mrs. R. P. Scraps, aboard the yacht "Ohio." In the party were his father, E. W. Scraps, Negley D. Cochran, newspaper publisher and former editor of the Toledo News-Examiner, the latter's daughter, Dorothy; Miss Margaret Culbertson of San Diego, cousin of Mrs. R. P. Scraps, and a party of scientists.

Government Acts. The Chinese government has issued "stringent orders" to the provincial authorities that all possible means be taken to rescue the captives, a statement by the state department said.

American Minister Schurman addressed rigorous reparations to the Chinese government.

Lloyd Lelchase, an American not listed in private dispatches, was reported in state department advice to have escaped.

Schurman has instructed the American consul at Tien Tsin to send Vice Consul David Berger immediately to the scene of the holding. The consul general at Shanghai has been instructed to send Consul J. J. Davis, who is familiar with conditions in the region, to report regarding the captured Americans.

WASHINGTON GIVES ADDRESSES OF HOSTAGES

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The passport division of the state department today gave out the home addresses of Chinese bandits.

Frederic Arthur Henley, evidently the J. A. Henley named in cable lists, lives in San Francisco. He was given a passport to China and Japan on Oct. 14, 1922.

The war department stated today that Major R. N. Pinger, mentioned among the captives, probably is Major R. W. Pinger of the ordnance division, who, with his family, is stationed at Manila.

The Captain Allen mentioned probably is Major Robert A. Allen, medical corps, also stationed at Manila.

While there was no definite information that either of these officers was in China, it was stated that American officers traveled in the Philippines often traveled and that such travel is encouraged by the war department.

ALL WOMEN ARE FRENCH, SAYS REPORT

NEW YORK, May 7.—Reports reaching the Standard Oil company of New York today indicated that the women included among the Americans and other foreigners kidnapped by Chinese bandits yesterday had been released. It was stated at the Standard Oil office today.

Thirty-four foreigners were captured by the bandits, according to the Standard Oil advice and a service dispatch stated that ten were known to have been released.

This would mean that Miss Lucy D. Aldrich, sister of Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has gained her liberty.

TO GIVE OPERETTA

"The Feast of the Red Corn," an American Operetta, will be presented at Franklin Auditorium Friday evening at 8 o'clock under the direction of Miss Edna Sanders and Miss Ruby Edmonds of the Auditorium Department. The public is invited. A small admission fee will be charged.

It takes at least six years to produce sufficient stocks of any new type of wheat to test it for milling purposes.

3 Sets to Be Urged in Political Battle

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Three sets of plans for settling the country's transportation problem will be urged on the country in a political battle over railroads which may dwarf all other issues in the 1924 campaign.

Harding's Plan

President Harding and his administration will have one plan—a fairly definite program, based upon consolidation of existing lines into a score of great systems.

Senator La Follette and his bipartisan progressive bloc in congress will have another, based upon squeezing all the water out of railroad valuation, and a sort of half way government control.

Is Livest Issue

All the politicians recognize in the railroad question, the liveliest of the issues confronting them. Farmers, manufacturers, consumers, are all stirred up about high rates and a threatened failure this summer and fall of the railroads to meet the demand.

It costs $120 a week for a staff to beat the carpets and mats in the British parliament.

Court Removes Objections When Bride, 12, and Groom, 19, Save Half of $200 Every Month

MACON, Mo., May 7.—When a bride of 12 and a husband of 19, who earn $200 a month together, can save half of it to buy a home, there is no good reason for putting them merely because of their youth.

Judge J. D. Walker of the Macon County Circuit Court believes so, and so Mrs. Thelma Spurling's parents are prevented from interfering with the couple's married life.

One of the ways Mrs. Spurling, formerly Thelma Ess, proved to the court she ought to be permitted to remain with her hubby, Henry, Spurling, was to exhibit a bank book showing a saving on the part of the two of $100 a month since their marriage.

The girl-wife works in a Des Moines store, Hubby toils for a saddlery company in that city.

A few months after their marriage the bride's mother sought to annul the tie on the ground that the Missouri laws had been violated in the issuance of a license. But Thelma returned to the scene of the conflict and in addition to discarding on the love that exists between the two, got down to more material things and showed the bank book.

That settled it.

John H. Kirby Gives Cardinal Rules for Success in Business

HOUSTON, Texas, May 7.—Success is not meted out—it is carved out by hard work.

This from John Henry Kirby, one of the South's most successful business men, in an interview on success.

"The secret to success? Why there is no secret to it," said Kirby. "Neither is there any royal road to success. The key is hard work, and then more hard work."

"Of course there are certain qualities that aid one in the attainment of success. Among them are: Character, kindness, promptness, both in payment of debts and appointments, steadfastness of purpose, the living of a personal moral life and an intelligent anticipation of the future."

"Young men of today are not made of the same stuff that men of a quarter of a century ago were," said Kirby, adding that the present generation is living at too fast a clip.

"The 'fair haired boys' never amount to much," he said. "They spend too much time searching for pleasure."

"One of the main things in the struggle for success is steadfastness of purpose. Lacking that quality success is rarely attained by anyone."

"When you start to do a thing, do it."

"It's all up to the man himself—and that involves work and a steadfast adherence to the goal one has set for one's self. If a man will observe things he will get there—remembering all the while that success is carved out and not meted out by someone higher up."

SIMMONS GETS $1,000 A MONTH

Klan Founder Benefits By Settlement Terms

ATLANTA, Ga., May 7.—Colonel William J. Simmons, founder of the Ku Klux Klan, will receive a salary of $1,000 monthly for life under the terms of settlement of the legal fight for control of the Klan's affairs signed today by Superior Judge E. D. Thomas.

Simmons was recognized as "emperor" of the secret order under the decree. Dr. H. W. Evans, elected as imperial wizard at the Klonovention last November, was recognized as the legally chosen executive head of the Klan.

Simmons' work in writing the Klan ritual was given recognition but he was directed to turn over to imperial headquarters all of the copyrighted rituals and secret paraphernalia of the order.

Klonovention to Govern. The klonovention, a committee of seven selected from Klan chapters throughout the country, will continue to be the chief governing body of the Klan.

THANKS AMERICANS. MOSCOW, May 7.—In a special address President Kalinin expresses his thanks to the American workmen who were former Russian citizens for a gift of one thousand five hundred dollars presented to him by the Russian-American Industrial Corporation for the Famine Children fund. The Commissioner of health also expressed his thanks for medicines and nourishing foodstuffs to the value of five thousand dollars sent by the New York Children Relief Committee.

HELGOLAND IS SINKING, CLAIM

Slowly Crumbling into the North Sea

REBILIM, May 7.—Helgoland is slowly crumbling away—sinking into the North Sea.

This famous old island, pleasure and health resort and former German naval stronghold, is being crushed into nothingness by the force of men and nature.

The sea, the heavy breakers, the fog, the moisture and rain, coupled with dynamiting of the heavy German fortifications as a result of orders issued by the allies at the end of the war, these are the factors contributing to the destruction of the little island, which was the base of German naval operations during the war. The heavy explosions, destroying the great forts, often shake the entire island like an earthquake, opening big dangerous rents in the earth.

Helgoland is really only an islet—1700 meters long and 600 meters wide, a circumference of about 4000 meters. One can walk entirely around it in about thirty minutes.

Fading Fast.
Old histories and chronicles indicate Helgoland in old days was four or five times its present size, having three towns, whereas now only one small community of 2000 souls exists there.

Up to two years ago, observers declare, about 75 to 80 square meters of the island had dropped from sight while during the last two years more than 300 square meters have been designated as lost area and given up as beyond redemption, their destruction and disappearance being only a matter of time.

A plateau on the northern end of the island has been marked off as a danger zone—chasms and jagged openings appearing in the earth as a forerunner impending catastrophe.

On the east side of the island, too, heaps of earth and rock—all waste—attest to what the future holds for the island. The west side has been strongly built up by protecting walls but these are being destroyed by rain and moisture. Nearly every day quantities of rock, loosed by the crevices and shifting land, crash to the lowlands and into the sea. The bath house, known the world over, is in great danger, one-third of its pillars having already been destroyed. The water is moving steadily toward this building and groups of workmen spend day and night building and protecting levees.

Trade With England.

With the passing of the island will pass much German tradition. In 1890, the German empire made a much discussed trade with England, passing off the isle of Zanzibar and some East African territory for the famous old bathing resort of Helgoland. Germany immediately began building giant fortifications, making the island its "Rock of Gibraltar," protecting the harbor of Hamburg and the northern coast of Germany.

Thousands of tourists came there each year to enjoy its baths. The inhabitants are very proud, professing to be neither German nor English but Helgolanders, though they speak a German dialect. Even the republic's constitution gives them certain rights.

Here on this little island Hoffman von Fallersleben wrote the German national song, "Deutschland, Deutschland, über Alles."

Old Theory That Snake Will Not Cross a Hair Rope Is Proved False

EL PASO, Texas, May 7.—The old theory held by cattlemen, prospectors and plainmen that a snake will not cross a hair rope has been proved false.

In the display window of a local drug company a diamond backed rattlesnake, one of the most poisonous of the species, was placed inside a circle of genuine hair rope. The reptile negotiated the rope without hesitation and crawled over to a place in the sun.

"They're a hitch somewhere," muttered an old plainsman who watched the performance. "Tain't the right kind of rope, get a maula."

This was done but the snake repeated the performance.

"The rope hair theory's all right," insisted the old pioneer. "I've slept on too often and every time I turned in on the trail I put a rope around my pullet."

"I've been in places where a man couldn't go fifty feet without runnin' across a rattler and I never was bothered and neither was anyone I ever knowed that used a rope either."

Nevertheless it didn't work here.

Scrivener Judge of Kangaroo Court of Tier No. 1 at Jail

DALLAS, Texas, May 7.—"Judge" W. S. Scrivener has been re-elected head of the Kangaroo court of tier No. 1, after serving a year in that capacity.

Scrivener, serving time in connection with the sensational Jackson street postoffice here in January, 1921, had a successful year on the "bench," he said.

Fines assessed by the "judge" have not only kept the "regulars" in the cell in smoke and other luxuries, but have kept newcomers busy with such duties as sweeping, mopping, making beds, etc.

A new prisoner is usually tried and found guilty by the kangaroo court. If he has no funds, he must work out his fine.

It is estimated that the "judge" collected several thousand dollars during his last term.

EDUCATION DRY UP SLEAZES

Houston Pro Agent Has Disciplined Suggestion

HOUSTON, Texas, May 7.—"The Volstead act can be enforced," is the declaration of Bracey Melton, field agent for the prohibition service for this district.

Melton has a novel system of his own for enforcing the law and he believes it will work.

"Not five times the present penalities could dry up all the stills," he says. "A system of education is the thing that will do it though."

Put the stuff on display in prominent places about the city. Show the people what they are drinking.
Print a chemical analysis of each sample on display; tell where it was confiscated and what it will do to a person who would be foolish enough to drink it.

A few photographs showing the repulsive condition under which many stills operate would help along wonderfully.

"Give the boys 'who like corn liquor a squirt at some of the stuff from their favorite bootlegger. Explain that it is full of foul oil; made in stills with lead pipes and contains deadly lead acetate—a slow but sure poison.

"Make them understand that the
"Scotch" they are getting is nothing but raw corn whiskey with creosote in it.

"Yes and I would give them all a list of the dead, dying, blind, sick and hopelessly wrecked for life from the effects of the stuff they are happening up."

Then as a chaser Melton says he would recommend a few demonstrations of the real internal organs of some of the men who are drinking stuff with fancy labels reading,
"Bottled in Bond" and "Imported Scotch" and let them see what it does.

"I think that would put a crimp in the trade pretty quick," he finished.

WRITE TO GOLD MOTHER PLAN

Legion Auxiliary Head Urges
May 13 Observance

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 7.—
Dr. Kate Waller Barrett, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, urges members of the organization to observe an hour on Mother's Day, May 13, to write some mother whose son made the supreme sacrifice in the World War. In her message to the 600 units of the legion's auxiliary, Dr. Barrett requests observance of the anniversary of Mother's Day because of the particular and intimate significance to the men and women of the American Legion.

"Five years ago," declares Dr. Barrett in her message, "these same men and women, their mothers and wives, were widely separated, and those who remained in the homes in this country, sorrowfully, yet proudly awaited the coming of the final victory."

"Home circles that were broken then are reunited today," continues the message, "and there will be a sense of thankfulness in our observance of this anniversary. That thankfulness will be more deeply felt by the remembrance of the sorrowful days of the war. But there are many young women of America to whom this anniversary brings memories of anguish still—gold star mothers' and lonely wives, whose grief is tempered only by the pride of a splendid sacrifice."

Scribbled 'Monikers' of Wandering Foot-ers' Brigade on Jail Walls

EL PASO, Texas, May 7.—Gypsy feet have led many a soul down the Romany road past El Paso.

Quaint songs, queer drawings, peculiar appealing songs of the open road on the walls of the local jail tell a silent testimony to the hundreds of wanderers who came through here en route—where?—they probably did not know themselves.

My moniker is Overland Red.

"I love the life of the open road.

"I use a box car for a bed.

"I'm as happy as a doggone todd."

Overland Red has come and gone during his song all the while. Few knew he came, few knew he went.
None cared. Overland Red cared cost of all.

"They come in some nights, ask for a place to sleep and are gone when the day breaks," says Jailer
A. A. Funk. "Just hoboes going somewhere. They don't know themselves just where and don't care."

Here are some of the names or monikers scribbled on the walls:
"Silent Joe-going west."

"Boston Blackie."

"The Travelling Tramp."

"The Tacoma Kid."

"Kentucky Slim, better known as the Panhandle Kid."

Dope Smuggled to Jail Under Postal Stamps

DALLAS, Texas, May 10.—One of the most cunning and unique ways of smuggling dope into Dallas yet to be brought to the attention of officers was discovered when approximately $50 worth of cocaine was found under six stamps on a special delivery letter addressed to an inmate of the Dallas county jail.

The misive had been mailed in Fort Worth. It contained two notes, one in code and the other in English.
Neither revealed the name of the sender.

HOW THEY PASSED IT ON

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform." There was a deficiency passed on to him by his predecessor when Charles A. Culberson became governor of Texas. James S. Hogg had given the people four years of constructive government and taken the administration of affairs out of the hands of the few for the purpose of placing it in the hands of the mass.

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform." Charles A. Culberson never walked around a stump when he met a stump in the middle of the road. He ascended the stump and then climbed down the other side. Having a deficiency on hand, he raised the tax rate and he abolished the deficit. There was a chorus of shrieks from curb-cotties and so-called farmers who whittled more in town than they plowed in the fields. Then the people made Culberson a United States senator and they kept him there twenty-four years.

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform." There was not much doing in the Sayer's administration. The government just jogged along and everything was peaceful and serene. There was no progressive program, no development of latent resources to speak of, and the constitution was the guide of the former watch dog of the United States treasury who insisted that a people governed least were the best governed. He did not have to take the state out of debt. He did not plunge the state into debt. This was before the day of the modern highway. When the roads were muddy the people remained at home; when the rivers and creeks were out of the banks, tourists remained stationary until the waters had fallen.

Ross, Hogg, Culberson and Sayers were busy men. Or cautious men. They did not put over a state board of equalization with the aid of lawmakers. Throughout their terms county commissioners courts had the first and the last say as to assessments regardless of the plain provision of the constitution—

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform."

Laurel followed Sayers. He had been a member of the American congress for years but his ambition had ever been to close his career as governor of his adopted state. Office seekers harassed him and pardon hunters worried the very life out of him. His congressional experience was so different from his experience as governor that he often said to his close friends that he had made a mistake in accepting the office of chief executive. He was a kindly, generous man in whose breast the fires of ambition had ceased to burn when he qualified as governor. In addition to this, ill health gripped him. There was no serious attempt made by him to get the lawmakers to do something that would bring about equalization of taxes and he retired from office with a personal feeling of relief.

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform."

Campbell succeeded Laurel. Campbell tackled what was known at the time, as the "monopoly octopus." He trailed Standard Oil to his lair but the lair must have been a blind. Then an attorney general of Texas prosecuted the Water Pierce Oil company and the offending company was compelled to pay a fine of something like five million dollars. This money was placed in the state treasury to the credit of general revenue fund. It was fruit for Campbell. As a "champion of the people," he cut the state tax rate to five cents, secured the enactment of a so-called rendition law which inflicted farmers in the black land counties and then passed it on to his successor.

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform." Colquitt came in. He inherited a deficiency. There would have been a greater deficiency had it not been for the oil money which had been used by his predecessor in paying the way for a five cents state tax rate. Colquitt was and is a glutton for figures. As a state senator he had been the author of tax laws. As a state tax commissioner, he had acquired ripe experience, but even Colquitt did not jar loose the strangle hold of two hundred or more commissioners courts which demanded the first say and the last say in fixing the taxable values of the cash of the many counties.

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform."

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform."

Then came Ferguson. His record is known to all reading and thinking men. He insisted that taxation should be equal and uniform and then he passed it on to William P. Hobby and Hobby passed it on to Pat Morris Neff. The letter passed it on to the lawmakers of the 33rd:

"Taxation shall be equal and uniform."

Democrats of Texas, in convention assembled in the city of San Antonio last September declared for a state board of equalization that would make taxation equal and uniform and place the burden of taxation where it belongs—on the property or wealth of the people of the commonwealth. Property is wealth; wealth is property. No individual should be permitted to escape paying his legitimate share of cost of government. No interest should be permitted. This is why the makers of the constitution of Texas made this declaration which is just as forceful and just as emphatic today as when the words were written almost fifty years ago:

PUSSYFOOT JOHNSON

Pussyfoot Johnson has found a way. He is going to line up 600,000,000 Oriental pagans for world wide prohibition and this too without delay. He says all the Moslems are pros. Their religion teaches them that intoxication is a short road to hell. All the Mohammedans, all the Hindus and all the Buddhists are total abstainers. All the Mohammedans worship the Koran, their Bible. It is dry from cover to cover. All the Hindus worship the laws of Manu, which is a Bible as dry as the desert of Sahara. All the Buddhists accept this as their commandment "Tough not intoxicating refreshments."

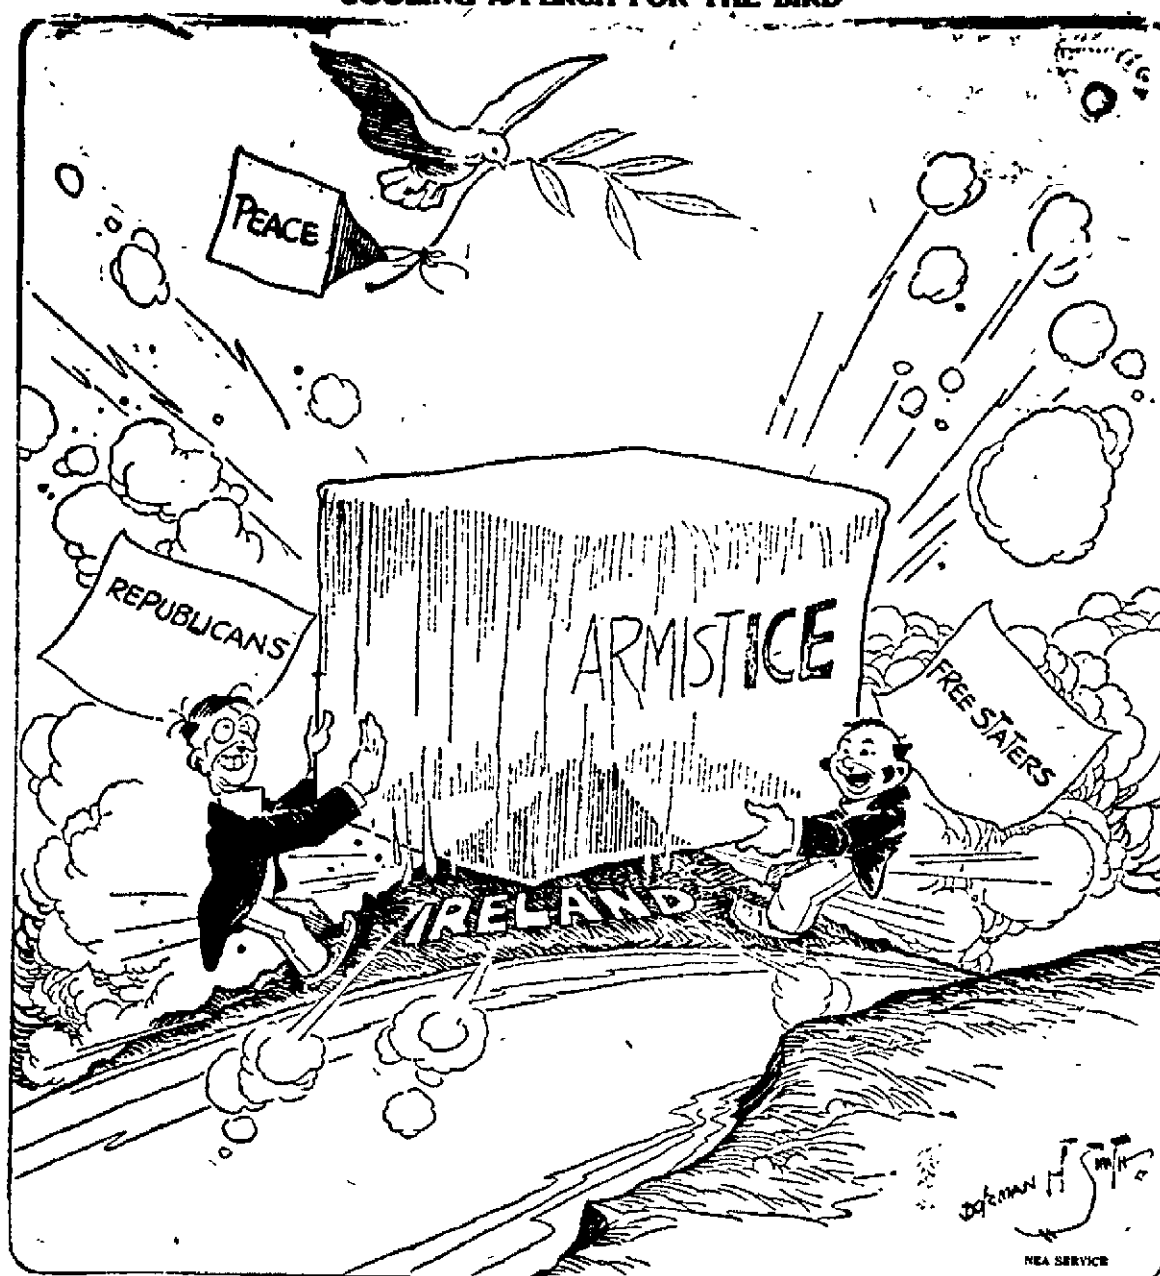

As Pussyfoot says there are 600,000,000 of these pagans who believe in total abstinence and who practice it. Christian missionaries are sent from all the so-called Christian countries to convert these pagans to the gospel of the living Christ. All the commerce of these pagan countries is controlled by Christian nations and the evangelists of commerce and the traders of Caucasian countries who go to Oriental lands take their brandy bottle with them.

They have introduced booze every where in the far east. They sell opium every where in the far east. They are interested in the cultivation of the poppy plant everywhere in the far east. Pussyfoot has decided to round up all the pagans, get them to pass prohibition laws and compel their observance on the part of all palefaces in the far east who are wine bibbers, brandy smashers, whiskey guzzlers or who fill their tanks daily with ale and beer.

Pussyfoot began his dry career in Oklahoma in the Indian territory. This was in the beautiful long ago, before statehood came. Since then he has carried a dry torch around the world. Now he is hopeful that the 600,000,000 pagans of the Orient will help him to make the far east as dry as a bat's cave and then he plans to go to Europe and make the war ridden nations as dry as Dr. Atticus Webb's Dallas Cellar.

Pussyfoot is a globe totter, he is a copy maker and he knows how to contribute to the gaiety of nations.

COOLING A PERCH FOR THE BIRD

CONTINUATION OF LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO THE GAY LITTLE MARQUISE

Jack began to get quiet as I asked him to turn the roadster into the street.

"You put yourself out of the critical class, Jack, when you would not let me consult you in any way."

"I knew that you would want to live in only a good part of the city."

"I knew you would want to have plenty of air. I knew that you would want me to have some of the niceties to which I was accustomed."

"If you had seen the places that were shown when I was looking for an apartment, you would be perfectly satisfied with this one what-ever I paid for it."

"It isn't a question, my dear girl, of what you paid for it. It is a question of what we can afford. Perhaps it would have been better to have boarded a white."

At this inauspicious moment we drove up to the curb of the apartment house, which is very imposing. I saw Jack look over in disapproval.

I wonder if he would have disappeared at the moment of a moment?

We walked in, we met by an obsequious office attendant and were taken up to the apartment in a gorgeous elevator. I opened the door and turned on the switch. Even Jack had to admire it.

"Good Lord, Leslie, I never saw such magnificence," he remarked grudgingly.

"Only good taste and persistent shopping, Jack," I answered.

"Notwithstanding I said this, Jack's face grew longer and longer. He didn't admire anything as Carl Whitney had. He did not make me feel as though I had done something splendid. Instead he made me feel that I had not only made a great mistake but in some way had committed almost a crime."

I didn't even dare tell him about mother giving the bedroom because when he saw the piano he said, "How much rent are you paying for that thing?"

And I answered, "I am not paying any rent. It belongs to us."

"Good Lord," was all he said.

Then he sat down in the easy chair which I had planned for his especial comfort and never noticing the smoking set and his own lamp by which he could read. He looked up at me and said very, very sternly, "Leslie, how much have you gone into debt?"

"I don't owe a dollar."

"How much of the money your mother gave you have you spent?"

"I have spent every cent that I thought I told you that I wanted a thousand dollars, at least, of that money to pay on some stock."

"And you will remember that I reminded you mother gave me that money for a specific purpose—to furnish this apartment."

ON THE HEIGHTS

By HERTON BRALEY

Sooner or later, they say, dear lass, The fervor and fever of love must pass, And the maddest of lovers will settle down

Out in the country or in the town, To hum-drum living and routine bliss, And maybe, some day, will come to this:

Faithful, loyal through good or ill, But sensing never a single thrill,

Such is our destiny, so they say, Such is the heart of the human way.

For the heart can't always maintain a beat As swift as the thought of you brings me, sweet!

And Time and Youth is a subtle thief And high romance is a glamor brief, If that be true—and it's doubtless so, Let's seize our moments before they go.

For now—you're a song on the air, A flame in my heart and a catch in my throat.

And all the magic of land or sea Is your enchantment cast over me, If we must descend from the heights in time,

Well now, at least, there are heights to climb! Let the old world wrinkle its cynical brow!

But oh it's great in the clouds just now!

2 AGED WOMEN BOMBERS, CLAIM

Mob Threatens Them As They Go to Jail

PADUCAH, Ky., May 7.—Two middle-aged women are in jail at Princeton, Ky., spirited there from this city when a large crowd of neighbors and other residents gathered in the Paducah courthouse with threats of violence, after the women had been arrested as suspects in the explosion which wrecked the home of Alfred Warren and killed Mrs. Warren, an expectant mother.

One of the two women who were hurried, handcuffed together, out of a side gate of the Paducah jail yard after the crowd gathered is Mrs. Henrietta Wagner, 50 years old, who had raised Warren from a 10-year-old child and who is said to have bitterly opposed his marriage. The other is Mrs. Emma Skillion, a close friend and intimate associate of Mrs. Wagner.

Circumstantial Evidence

A court of inquiry has resulted in county officials announcing that a strong web of circumstantial evidence has been woven around the two women and that a man may be arrested in the case also.

The explosion occurred early Monday morning, after Warren had gone to work, leaving his 34-year-old wife and her three children by a former marriage still sleeping. The explosion apparently was placed under the house and directly beneath the bed occupied by Mrs. Warren. This bed was blown to splinters and she was killed instantly, while the three children were hurled from their beds in an adjoining room.

Mrs. Warren's 15-year-old son, Eugene, has said he heard his mother call him an instant before the blast came. A woman was seen by neighbors to run away from the Warren home immediately after the explosion, and police are seeking to establish her identity, as well as that of a woman in a pink apron who is said to have acted queerly as the body of Mrs. Warren was being taken from the wreckage.

Threats Reported

Officials, who are working on the theory that the explosives were obtained from the warehouse of contractors constructing a sewer near the residence of Mrs. Wagner, are endeavoring to show that she knew the storage place of dynamite used by the company in blasting.

They also say they have learned that Mrs. Wagner had several times threatened the life of Mrs. Warren and that four months ago she attacked the younger woman at the city market. Special efforts are being made to verify a report that the woman who took Warren into her home as a boy had told several persons his wife would never live to become the mother of his expected child.

YOU AND I

SPECIAL ADVERTISING

"You and I" are quite common among the rising generation, according to specialists. In England 1,500 children from the ages of 10 to 15 are training for mediocrity in the Special Union Spiritualist Sunday School. This will make a formidable missionary force.

If not interested in the psychic, here's something decidedly material: Over five billion cigarettes are manufactured in the United States in one month. That's nearly a third more than the output a year ago. Manufacturers are divided, whether the increase is due to women smokers or to prohibition-nervous nation seeking in tobacco the thrill it formerly got in alcohol.

BOOZE

When it comes to turning mental hand springs, take your hat off to the wags. They've blamed prohibition for everything except the late spring. Capt. W. H. Staxton, of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, claims prohibition has hit the farmers by causing people to eat less. Probably true, and a good thing. Alcohol in excessive quantities is an unnatural appetite stimulator. However, many would be willing to trade their stomach's health for a return of free lunch with a glass of beer. A lot of the best cooking was invented to make people drink more. Goodbye, rathskeller.

GUNPLAY

The police commission in Victoria, B. C. (Canada), wants crime films suppressed, claiming that gunplay in the movies is largely responsible for crime wave among boys.

One thing about writers of the old-time melodramas and Nick Carter, they always pictured the villain come to grief and pictured him so that the audience hissed. It was against professional ethics to idealize any form of crookedness or even give it an element of alluring romance. The writer or producer who makes crime "cute" or heroic is a valuable ally to the underworld.

THEATRICAL

Occasionally a critic with a lazy liver moans about America not being able to produce art—our best plays coming from abroad, and so on. It rather bewilders us to pick up the London Daily Mail and find its critic, Gordon Street, lamenting that London theatres are playing 22 home-made plays against 17 imported ones. He is alarmed because "The United States is an easy first where dramatic importations to this country are concerned."

Distance lends enchantment!

TOUCH OF ORANGE WILL GIVE SUNSHINE TO THE HOME AND MAKE DARK CORNERS BRIGHT

With the spring housecleaning at hand Port Arthur women are planning to make their dull corners gay by introducing a bit of bright orange color.

The value of an orange color note in a decorative scheme can scarcely be overestimated. From the little cross-stitched basket embroidered on a guest towel that does not seem really finished until the orange flower centers are worked in, to the luxuriously furnished room that betrays a lack till an orange sofa cushion, runner or drapery has found its place, orange has proved an invigorating note.

Nature is full of orange. From early summer till late fall nasturtiums or marigolds may be brought in to fill the bowls and vases. Then there are the seashell yellow flowers, such as butter cups and gold-crests. Gold-fish lazily swimming in a crystal bowl are another reverberation of sunshine offered up by nature.

Lacquers, so much in vogue now, yields beautiful orange tones which may be used for a book trough, a single chair, or even for a solid door.

The value of brass and copper is well known as a relief to dull walnuts and oaks. One bowl of yellow pottery often suffices to make an uninteresting room gay. An orange-colored work bag will cause a dark corner to "sing," and even a large orange blotting pad on a desk will bring in the sunshine.

If you want to go to sleep with happy rather than sad thoughts put an orange bow of shiny satin in your bedroom or some orange-colored accessory on your dressing table; or put orange candles in your bedroom candlesticks. But a gleam of orange you must have.

THE musical and comedy at the First Christian church this evening at 8 o'clock will be the final entertainment of the Girls' Music Study and Dramatic club for the season and as a whole promises to be one of the most delightful affairs which the club has given this season.

The club, composed of Mrs. O. L. Norton's music pupils, has gained prominence during the winter months by the splendid entertainments and plays which the members have presented on various occasions.

Tonight's program will be divided into two parts, the first half being the musical and the second half being divided into two parts, a scene from George Baker's three-act play, "Rebecca's Triumph," and a one-act farce, "A Love of Bonnet."

The musical will consist of eight numbers, several of which are piano numbers, vocal selections and readings, by Misses Helen Howes, Thelma Plante, Mary Lorenz, Violet Edwards, Olive Kitchner, and Annie Mildred Johnson, and Mrs. O. L. Norton.

"An Irish Love Letter" will be presented by Misses Thelma Plante, the Irish maid; Katherine Jurschke, a colored girl, and Olive Kitchner, a visiting young lady. The scene is filled with amusing incidents resulting from the reading of the love letter, written in characteristic Irish brogue.

In the one-act farce, "A Love of Bonnet," the following cast will appear: Miss Olive Kitchner as Mrs. Clippier, a widow; Miss Mary Lorenz, her daughter; Miss Violet Edwards, Aunt Jemima Hopkins; Miss Helen Howes as Mrs. Hortense Sanborn; Miss Annie Mildred Johnson as her difficult daughter; and Miss Itha Quick as Kate, the Irish help.

The public is cordially invited to attend the affair. No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be taken at the close of the program for the club's summer fund.

MRS. R. McFADDEN WILL ENTERTAIN the Tuesday Coterie at her home, 1901 Procter street. For after-luncheon diversion the members of the Tuesday Coterie will play bridge.

Mrs. L. E. Martin, most excellent chief, leaves tomorrow for Houston to attend the Grand Lodge.

If You Want the Latest Styles in Bathing Costumes Keep Your Eyes Posted for the creations That Come from Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, May 7.—Movie maids of Hollywood are setting the mode for America this season. Three things combine to make the film colony the mentor of bathing styles: 1. The early opening of the southern Pacific beaches, providing the first parade of costumes.

2. The beauty of the wearers and the fact that most of them swim as gracefully as they decorate the sands, setting off the costume to full advantage.

3. Expert designers in the movie studios, who vie with one another to combine dazle with utility in deckings out their respective luminaries.

More than in any previous season, Hollywood has deliberately decided to set a fashioning pace for women who go down to sea. Many of the habiliments which made movie fans gasp in recent photoplays will be strutted on the sands of Santa Monica, Venice, Long Beach, Ocean Park and Balboa, exciting envy and emulation.

Several well known eastern manufacturers of clothes have already asked permission to adopt bathing novelties created in Hollywood studios.

"The west coast was the first to assert its independence of Parisian fashions," says Ethel Chaffin, costume designer for the coast branch of Paramount studios. "It has taken the farthest stride ahead, developing costumes particularly appropriate for the American woman and her peculiar needs. In no line is this so evident as in beach togs."

DRINK SIGNALS WRECKED GANG

Big Crooks Finished When Drunk Is Caught

PARIS, May 7.—When a member of Dan Norton's gang of international high-class crooks asked for a Scotch and soda or a green creme de menthe, it meant just that to the bartender and the innocent bystander, but to any other member of the band who happened to be within hearing it conveyed the information that the "deal" had gone through, or "must see you right away."

This method of communicating with each other, when they were supposed to be total strangers, served the crooks well for quite a while, but it had disadvantages which resulted in the capture by the Paris sleuths of the leader of the gang and eight of his lieutenants, including "the little girl from London," who acted as the decoy.

French plain-clothes men had been on the trail of the crooks for months but had been unable to connect them with the scores of robberies of money and jewelry reported from the best hotels of Paris, London and Brussels, the victims being chiefly American and Englishmen.

It was the "barroom telegraphy" which proved their undoing. Dan Norton, the "man with the cauliflower ear," had had so many messages to transmit to his pals that when he left the Hotel Continental after a big haul of gems he wasn't able to navigate the perilous crossing of the rue de Rivoli and was picked up by a sleuth.

In the police station abundant proof of his profession was found in his pockets.

Meanwhile, Daisy Evans, so-called wife of an Australian member of Norton's confederation, had been transmitting similar messages to sundry gentlemen of cosmopolitan appearance in a bar near the Opera. Having had "see the story over," she was found an hour or so later carting down the rue Daumou, shrieking "Tip-nary."

The plain clothes man specially accredited to her saved her from the regular "cop on the beat" and sent her to join Norton. Within an hour the others were all gathered in.

LIBRARY CIRCULATES PHONOGRAPH RECORDS

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 7.—The lending of phonograph records, as well as books and periodicals, has proved so popular in the city library here that the plan may be followed by libraries in other parts of the country.

The authorities' object in lending records was to give those unable to purchase the more expensive reproductions an opportunity to enjoy the joys in music. One hundred records formed the nucleus of the "canned music" library, and these were early sought.

Only persons more than 18 years old have the privilege of borrowing records.

PARIS FEARFUL OF AN AIR WAR

Believes Germany Is Figuring on Comeback

PARIS, May 7.—Ten thousand 40 horsepower motors, capable of being transformed in a few hours into aviation motors of 400 horsepower, to equip a gigantic fleet of bombing planes will be in use in Germany within a few months, according to an air expert who has just made a trip through that country.

This will constitute the greatest menace to France that has been organized across the Rhine since the days in music. One hundred records formed the nucleus of the "canned music" library, and these were early sought.

55 CONVERSIONS BY EVANGELISTS

Evangelist White to Return Here in April

The revival at the Church of Christ (tabernacle) closed last night with a total of fifty-five members added to the church during the series of services.

An overflowing audience heard the closing address of Evangelist L. E. White who spoke from Paul's great speech to Atrippas as found in Acts 28. At yesterday morning's service he spoke on the "Antioch Church as a Model Church," Acts 12.

Rev. White has agreed to return to Port Arthur next April and conduct another revival.

L. E. Carpenter, minister of the Church of Christ, announced today that Evangelist H. W. Busby of Fort Worth will hold a revival at the church in November.

There isn't any harmony in some families because everybody is trying to do a solo.

ROSE REPLIES TO 'DODGER' ITEMS

Declares He Does Not Know Who Authorized Framing of Ticket

To the Public: "Touching the election circular distributed on the street last Saturday regarding the sample ballot scattered the night before, I feel that I owe myself, and those who do not know me, an explanation:

All the letters and election literature touching the city campaign for the ticket upon which my name appeared, was sent out through my office by young ladies who were paid for the work they did. All candidates had cards in my office for their friends to call and get. The office was headquarters for this ticket, and I was treasurer for what funds they had contributed for the campaign.

When I left Port Arthur on the 28th of April for Corsicana on legal business, the ticket which was the basis of the slanderous charges against me had not been printed, nor did I know one thing about its existence. Upon my return from Corsicana the following Thursday morning an express package containing the tickets was in my office. Friday night several men with their cars came and took these tickets away in small packages which was handed them by one of the campaign committee. Not one was distributed, to my knowledge, otherwise, I do not know who authorized the framing and preparation of that ticket. I have learned that it was not authorized by the committee.

The two Scouts nor the Knights of Columbus had a single thing to do with its origin, or its disposition, so far as I know.

With reference to that Pat Ryan letter concerning the J. W. W. and John Aron, I never heard of before. I never represented John Aron, never saw him in my life to know him. This blackguard grew out of my defending the City Fern, charged with vagrancy in the old court here and convicted and fined $200 January, a year ago. On appeal he was acquitted by a jury of any guilt, in less than two weeks from the day of his conviction by the city. He was prosecuted under said charge because he was an I. W. W. He was a homeless orphan, very poor and friendless boy. He needed legal counsel. Our country's laws say he is justly entitled to it.

The suggestion in this dodger that I was the legal counsel for the I. W. W. is as false within itself as was the unknown and unsigned authors of the dodger. The other blackguardly descriptions are so much akin to the hearts, character, and disposition of these character assassins that I rigidly refrain further condescending to mention them. Their speech is fraught with the foulest filth, their hearts are as black as night.

I do not blame the reported affidavit of the Scouts, nor that of Mr. Collins; nor when boys of tender years, and lots of men, are arrested and housed in police headquarters, they usually sign most any statement presented for them, with the assurance that they will be "let go" after signing thereof.

I have learned since Saturday night that there were two main purposes in the circulation of the supposed K. K. K. ticket. The first purposes, as stated to me, was to counteract a like ticket that began its circulation among the members of the K. K. K. early in the week, and the second was to follow up on a like practice in the July primaries of last year when these tickets were mailed broadcast to most all voters by the K. K. K. headquarters, thus a medium of acquainting the public with a knowledge of who they were voting for. And for these reasons the persons who framed that ticket felt no moral turpitude, that they had perpetrated a "trick," for they followed a very successful precedent of their pre-election campaign.

It is my sincere regret that any innocent person should suffer in consequence of that ticket, or its distribution, the cause of which I had nothing to do, and for which I hold briefs for no apologies for any person at persons.

I thank those who voted for our ticket. I congratulate Mr. Wiesner upon his gain in political strength, and can very much appreciate his gentle and manly character of campaigning. I am glad you were elected. I did not really want the position.

"KICK IN"

The crook play, "Kick In," which opened the fifth and last week's engagement of the Ferguson Stock company at the Strand yesterday, furnishes two hours of excellent entertainment. E. A. All members of the company were suited for their parts. The feature picture running with this bill is Katherine McDonald in "Domestic Relations." This bill will continue at the Strand through Thursday night.

Beaumont, With 38 Points, Wins 4-City Golf Lead Sunday

Port Arthur Entries Add 5 Points to Standing; Moffatt and Smith Finish Play at Lake Charles With Good Cards.

Special to the News.
LAKE CHARLES, La., May 7.—Beaumont topped the list here yesterday in the inter City Golf League tournament, and won the contest over the Orange, Port Arthur and Lake Charles entries.

Smith and I. Moffatt, of the Port Arthur Country Club, turned in the best card for that contingent, the former having a 98 for his trip, while the latter had a 99.

Orange scored second in the play with 27, and Lake Charles had 26. Port Arthur's aggregation amassed but 7 to add to the grand total of four club. The Beaumont victory increased the lead of that club from 1 point to 13 and with but one other round to play, that at Orange next month, the club-wielders feel that the handsome trophy will spend the first year of its existence in their city.

Greeves, the high point winner for Beaumont, sweeping his four-one the entire 9 possible points, was hard pressed for honors by Smythe Walden, Guy Keith and Joe Summingham, who turned in cards which accounted for 8 points each. Dr. O. S. Hodges, the other member of the team, seemed lost on the fairways and failed to register.

The most interesting duel of the afternoon, which attracted 300 to the course, was between Guy Keith and W. V. Conover, local youth, who has created a stir in state circles. Keith finished the first round 2 up after the youngster had trouble on the green. The second round was even.

Keith's card for the 18 holes was 86, low score for the day, and Conover had 88 to the Walden for second honors. Beltz was high for Orange with 89 for the afternoon, and Moffatt led for Port Arthur with 98 after Craig collapsed on the last round after turning in 41 for the first nine. If there was an outcast for the season, it was Walden, who had a 100 for his card.

It was the deadly putting of Greeves. His consistency carried him to the high count of the day and once on the green he was out of trouble. A member of the four club declared after the match, "I feel that I have a green card on me, and I hope I have it on me when I go to the Orange clubhouse."

On the 18th green where he holed out on a 35, of 1 for a 100 and a birdie. His drive on the 155-yard hole was bare, and he bunkered on the edge. Putting deliberately uphill, he sent the ball sharply into the cup. The day was at a perfect golf afternoon, with a bright sun and a slight breeze from the south, but not enough to offer any handicap to the players.

Alfred Roberts, another youngster placed on the local team, had been caught up as a sure winner and his failure to register 18, Alvey brought much was to the enthusiasm of the members as they saw point after point slip away. Holland, a new member of the team, did not deliver the game expected and he was eight strokes below the pair of 41's turned in yesterday in the qualifying round.

Walden and Keith turned in low scores for a single round each, not getting the sports fairways in 42. Walden issued two short putts to send his score above what it might have been.

Do You Know?

"Can a naturalized American citizen compete for the United States team in the Olympic games?"

W. H. L. No. The rules of the International Olympic Association require that any athlete can wear only the colors of the country in which he was born. There were two illustrations at Antwerp. Although Americans by citizenship and a long period of residence, Earl Thompson and Hannes Kolehmainen could not compete for the American team. Thompson, a Canadian by birth had to compete in the hurdles for Canada and Kolehmainen had to represent Finland.

"How many ring champions have lost their title and won them back?"

F. L. G. Stanley Ketchell, Jack Britton, Pete Herman, Joe Lynch and Gene Tunney.

"What happened to Mike O'Dowd that he had to retire when he was only 28 years of age?"

RING FAN. O'Dowd went bad physically after he lost the championship to Johnny Wilson and when he was first knocked out at the hands of Jack McJone recently he decided to quit. He always had a bad knee resulting from an injury sustained playing baseball and when he went into the ring against Malone, he could hardly stand on the leg. O'Dowd was young, but he was never clever and he stopped most of them with his head. The pounding and not his age probably got him more than anything else.

"What college or university has been the greatest producer of major league ball players?"

The repair men worked throughout Sunday and until 5 a. m. today before the water main was repaired. A faulty piece of pipe caused the line to break, according to reports at the city engineering office.

Questions

ONE—Pitched ball strikes several feet in front of the home plate. The moment it strikes the umpire calls "ball." The ball then strikes the batsman. What about it?

TWO—Can pitcher stand to the side of the rubber and point his wrist up, then throwing to first in an effort to catch the runner napping?

THREE—Umpire calls "back on pitcher, who then delivers the ball to the batsman, who hits a home run over the fence. What is the proper ruling?

FOUR—Can a pitcher get on the rubber without having the ball in his possession?

FIVE—If pitcher is standing on rubber and runner on third starts for home, what must he do in order to have the right to throw the ball to the catcher in order to make a play on the runner?

Answers

ONE—Umpire called the play too quickly. When the batsman is hit by the wild pitch which struck in front of the plate he is entitled to first.

TWO—It is a balk if a pitcher is off the rubber and starts to wind up.

THREE—Calling of balk instantly suspends play. No consideration is given the fact that the batter hit a home run. He continues to bat. All base runners advance one base.

FOUR—It is a balk if he does.

FIVE—All he needs do is step off the rubber. Then he has a right to make a play to the plate as any other base. If he remains on the rubber and delivers the ball to the catcher it is a legal pitch and the batsman can strike at the ball if he so elects.

Questions

ONE—A runner steals second, but overrules and is touched out. Does he get credit for a stolen base?

TWO—Has a batsman who hits the ball the right to stop and retreat his steps toward the plate if he so desires?

THREE—If a fielder muffs a foul fly ball, and the batsman is later retired before reaching first, is the miff scored as an error?

FOUR—Ground rules gives batsman two bases on a hit to a certain part of the field. The ball bounds out, is recovered and batter is thrown out trying to go to third. What is the ruling?

FIVE—Runner on first starts to steal second, field umpire is hit by the ball thrown by the catcher. He goes into right field, and runner tries for third but is thrown out. What about the play?

Answers

ONE—He does not receive credit for a stolen base.

TWO—Batsman can stop between first and home just as between any other bases, if he so desires.

THREE—The fielder is charged with an error on a palpable miff, regardless of what later happens.

FOUR—The ball was dead the moment it went into unretired territory. It was impossible to retire the runner, who should have been sent back to second.

FIVE—The ball is in play, and the fielder made a proper play when he threw the runner out at third.

ORANGE TAKES GULFIES INTO CAMP SUNDAY

Muffed Catches and Wild Throws Cost Game

Special to the News.
ORANGE, Texas, May 7.—Gulf players muffed the ball at important times yesterday, and while Oliver was miffing a speedy contest, the Orange Diamonds gathered the hits together when hits counted, got all the breaks of the game and pushed men across the fourth plate for a 7-to-5 victory over the Port Arthur City League leaders.

In the estimation of those who witnessed the clash, it was one of the snappiest and closest Orange has had this season. More than once during the melee the game looked gloomy for the choice contingent of Orange.

The Diamonds drew first blood in the opening stanza and connected for another in the second, while in the two frames the boys from Port Arthur had only been able to gather one.

Orange scored again in the fourth and in the fifth and sixth the Gulfies came pushing behind and brought in one in each period.

It was in the fatal seventh that the game was put on ice for the day and settled finally for all times. The Gulf came to bat first and brought in a couple of clean ones, and the Orangemen took their turn at bats, they finished the dispute by doubling on Oliver's offerings for three runs.

Oliver, despite the lunched hits and the breaks of the games that went against him, handled himself beautifully. He struck out seven men during the clash and permitted only three strolls to first, two of which were somewhat doubtful, while Lee was being hit at scattered intervals, and was unable to clip off more than three strikeouts.

Fuller crapped off the heaviest hit of the day, connecting with a long drive for three stations and he might have made it home but for his swift, running, which brought him too close to Oliver and caught them both between third and home in a run-down. Oliver was plainly blocked when he stretched for home on the play, but the umpire called him out and placed him back on third, where he died.

This accounted for at least one run of the Gulfies, and set a back on their spirit that otherwise might have copped the game for them.

The Gulfie outfield had an off-day to a great extent, and neat flies that fell in the very spots Gulf fielders should have been permitted to strike the ground for singles and two-buggers. The same was true of the infield; it played such ball as it hasn't done before. Whether the boys were over anxious, or just what was not known—but at any rate they overthrew bases when good manipulation of the ball counted, and let in at least three runs on errors, either of commission or omission.

Otherwise, the clash was fast and clean and savored of the big league brand at times that made up for the bad spots. The score:

Beaumont ..... 7 0 0 0 0 0 0—7 10 2
Houston ..... 0 1 0 0 0 0 0—1 9 0
Two base hits, Kirkham, Knight, Bell, sacrifice hits, Turgeon 2, McMonroe, 2b, sacrifice hits, Huber to Osgood to Strong; bases on balls of Jacobus 2, off Knight 4; struck out by Jacobus 1, by Knight 2, left on bases, Beaumont 5, Houston 3; umpires, Fanning and Kane, time, 2 hours.

Texacos and Island Clubs to Play Today; City Plays Tomorrow

City Leaguers resume their contest this afternoon when the first postponed game of the season will be played on Lakeshore diamond between the Texacos and the Islanders. Other postponed games are to be played off immediately, it has been announced, the idea of the league officials being to clean up the unplayed games of the past as rapidly as possible in order to permit as many post-season games as desired by the various clubs.

Tomorrow afternoon the "Citizens" tangle up with the Islanders again, and tomorrow is looking forward to both events to furnish fast contests for their excitement.

KNIGHT BLOWS UP IN EIGHTH

Beaumont Exporters Take Third of Series

Special to the News.
HOUSTON, Texas, May 7.—Beaumont staged a comeback in the sixth stanza yesterday when the Buffaloes got wild and walked in a run, and in the eighth frame, they put the game on ice with a four-run jump that won the third of the four-game series.

There were no feature spots to the contest. It grew weird at times, and the only other thing that developed was when the Buff hurler blew up and walked in the tying run.

MARKETS

WALL STREET JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, May 7.—Another day heavy selling carried Steel Common below par and resulted in the establishment of new lows on the market throughout the day. Just as far the irregularity created by a spurious buying order went toward protecting the further decline as was probable.

But this incident was hardly important enough to account for the sweeping recession which took place in representative stocks in both the industrial and railroad groups. The general list in the last hour, however, showed a slight recovery, and the rate, stocks had broken to levels which made them attractive and considerable buying was reported in the afternoon.

The market closed lower:

U. S. Steel 100 1/2 off 1/2
Baldwin 12 1/2 off 1/2
Republic Iron and Steel 2 1/2 off 1/2

Union Pacific 2 1/2 off 1/2
Virginia and Carolina 2 1/2 off 1/2
Vanadium Steel 2 1/2 off 1/2
Stamper Petroleum 2 1/2 off 1/2

New developments of stock market significance occurred over the week-end. Prices in the general list continued to fluctuate, but in the absence of news that the LaPorte steel plant had called a conference on reduction of the railroad, carriers showed a strong tone. Substantial gains were noted by New York Central, Union Pacific and other railroads. Products led the industrial group. The market was characterized by a single transaction of 1000 shares, the active industrial was irregular.
